MISSION

The mission of Seven Hills Foundation is to promote and encourage the empowerment of people with significant challenges so that each may pursue their highest possible degree of personal well-being and independence.

Seven Hills Foundation currently offers programming at 235 locations throughout Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire and employs more than 4,700 professionals. The Foundation offers a continuum of support and services to over 60,000 children and adults with disabilities and life challenges, and another 17,000 women and children in developing countries through our 15 Affiliate organizations.

“I have the privilege of coaching some outstanding athletes through Seven Hills Special Olympics, including my son Patrick. Thank you to the golfers and donors of the New Beginning Golf Tournament for helping Seven Hills expand and grow opportunities in Central and North Central Massachusetts. Together, we are creating opportunities for building self-esteem, friendships, and joy in so many of our athletes..”

—David Burke, parent and coach
